

THE AGE OF EXPLORATION: PART II QUESTIONS*Section 4: Spain's Early Explorations

1. Copy and complete the following sentences in the response box below:
- Christopher Columbus was important to Spanish exploration because

- Ferdinand Magellan was important to Spanish exploration because

2. List the various effects of early Spanish exploration. Your list should include at least five different effects. An example is done for you.

Example: The Spanish revealed the existence of the Americas, a “New World” to Europeans

(1)

(2)

(3)

(4)

(5)

Section 5: Other European Explorations

3. Copy and complete the following sentences in the response box below:
- John Cabot was important to English exploration because

- Giovanni da Verrazano was important to French exploration because

- Henry Hudson was important to Dutch and English exploration because

4. List the various effects of other European explorations. Your list should include at least four different effects. An example is done for you.

Example: found rich resources of cod and other fish, which led European fishing boats to regularly visit the region

(1)

(2)

(3)

(4)

5. Overall, do you think the Age of Exploration had a more positive or a more negative impact on the world as a whole? Why?

6. How did the Age of Exploration change the way Europeans viewed the world?