

“Where I’m From” Modeled Poem Assignment

Name:

Directions: Write your own “Where I’m From” poem using the original poem by George Ella Lyon as your model. You may use the poem template to help you organize your ideas or you may write your poem without the template. Either way, your final draft must be typed or written neatly on lined paper.

Grading Rubric

4	3	2	1
Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Progressing	Not There Yet
The poem uses MANY vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem has a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure has been modeled appropriately (stanzas, lines, capitalization, etc).	The poem uses SOME vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem has a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure has been modeled appropriately (stanzas, lines, capitalization, etc).	The poem uses FEW vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem does not have a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure may not have been modeled appropriately (stanzas, lines, capitalization, etc).	The poem uses LITTLE or NO vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem does not have a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure has not been modeled appropriately.
100	90	80	70 or below

Name:

“Where I’m From” Modeled Poem Assignment

Directions: Write your own “Where I’m From” poem using the original poem by George Ella Lyon as your model. You may use the poem template to help you organize your ideas or you may write your poem without the template. Either way, your final draft must be typed or written neatly on lined paper.

Grading Rubric

4	3	2	1
Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Progressing	Not There Yet
The poem uses MANY vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem has a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure has been modeled appropriately (stanzas, lines, capitalization, etc).	The poem uses SOME vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem has a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure has been modeled appropriately (stanzas, lines, capitalization, etc).	The poem uses FEW vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem does not have a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure may not have been modeled appropriately (stanzas, lines, capitalization, etc).	The poem uses LITTLE or NO vivid and specific nouns, verbs, and adjectives that evoke images and tell a story. The poem does not have a voice that is unique and sounds like the writer. Text structure has not been modeled appropriately.
100	90	80	70 or below